In an it has Dickens does not live. He likes to see others enjoy themselves, while Theckeray seems to care only for enjoying himself. One constantly hears of kind actions done by Dickens; never of Thackeray in that way. In possession of a good heart as well as vest genius, I think that Dickens very closely resembles Walter Scott.

FRIDAY, APRIL 19, 1861.

HIFTENCE OF KLYTUCKY .- Gov. Magellin is now in Louisville. We understand has changed his mind and concluded not to conveno the Legislature. He has asked from the banks a loan to the amount of three or four per cent of all the stock owned by the State in those institutions, and we are informed that some of He hauk presidents talk of letting him have the money upon the express condition that it shall be used to place and keep and defend Kentucky in a condition of armed neutrality In tween the Northern and Sonthern beligerents and not to take her out of the United States and defend her in her revolt.

We have advocated and do carnestly advo eato the thorough arming of the State of Kentucky, yet one or two questions occur to us In the first place, what authority has the Gov ernor to horrow money in this case in behalt of the State? What power has he to pledge tho faith of the State for its repayment In the second place, what guarantee on the bank presidents liavo that the Gover n ir, whose personal honor we do not for n a ment question, will, in the disbursement osrcion of which to complain, and there had of the money, faithfully observe the prescribed lapsed forly days and nights of Lincoln's condition instead of yielding himself in a great rule, time enough for the deluge to drown out measure or entirely to the strong wills of those a wicked world. The forty days antecedent { viol-nt disunionists who are well known to exto the inauguration of Lincoln showed more ereise a most potent influence upon his official wickedness, rascality, and treachery around the administration of Mr. Buchanan than

Gov. Magoffin, while in this city, has been in the closest consultation with the very strongest and hitterest and most active of the disunionists that we have among us. The especial matter of consultation between him and them has certainly been the obtaining of this loan from the Bucks. The loan is ening the Legislature was withdrawn after having gone to the printing office because the
